W ho would have believed when we began plans for Glasnost '92 that there would no longer be a Soviet Union by the March 27 - 29 symposium but instead, a Commonwealth of Independent States.

WELCOME TO GLASNOST '92

The Glasnost '92 celebration offers Kansans the only opportunity to see the Glasnost Ballet Festival, and to share in a symposium hosted by only six schools - Dartmouth, Bryn Mawr, Yale, Middlebury, the University of Kentucky and Dodge City Community College. Of special interest will be an appearance by one of the Commonwealth's finest Folk Dance Groups, Druzhba.

Dodge City Community College and a loyal committee of local and area people are offering an opportunity to better understand and discuss the changes as they unfold and to try to grasp the implications and responsibilities for us and the entire world.

The focus will include themes of agriculture, Kansas descendants, revolutionary parallels, cultural change and human rights.

Purchase of the official Glasnost '92 buttons will admit you to all workshops and events except the Ballet and Druzhba Dancers.
